Marymount College Sets Spring Concert, May 2

Music by composers of the Baroque period will be played when members of the chamber music class at Marymount College present their spring concert on May 2, on the Palos Verdes Estates campus.

Sven Reher, conductor, has programmed selections by Corelli, Beethoven, Creston, Bach, Mozart, Handel-Halvorsen and Haydn for the concert which will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the student-faculty center.

Participating will be Ruby Hollis and Judy Sabin, piano; Sandra Karol and Dianne Plummer, violin; Anna Meyer, viola; Lois Blackburn, cello; Nancy Shomler, flute; and Gina Denteseano accordion.

Miss Denteseano will play a special transcription of the Bach Toccata and Fuge, and by request will repeat the Prelude and Dance, Opus 76, by Creston.

The remainder of the program will consist of the Trio Sonata in A Major, Opus 4, by Corelli, Quartet for Piano and Strings, Opus 16, Beethoven, Quartet in G Minor for Piano and Strings, K.478, by Mozart.

Following the intermission, the students will present the Passacaglia for Violin and Viola by Handel-Halvorsen, and the String Quartet in F Major, Opus 74, No. 2, by Haydn.

There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited.

OUR OWN HOME ECONOMIST

Buy an extra chicken this week to make up a bowl of our MANDARIN PINEAPPLE CHICKEN SALAD. Cook a large fryer in seasoned water until the meat falls off the bones easily, about 1 1/4 hours. Cut the meat into large chunks. Add to the meat 2 tablespoons chopped green onion, 1 bottle drained capers, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice and 1 cup diced celery. Allow this mixture to chill at least two hours. Remove from refrigerator at the end of that time and add 1 cup well-drained mandarin orange sections, 1 cup drained pineapple chunks, 1 cup fresh or canned seedless grapes and 1/2 cup toasted slivered almonds. Now add to the entire mixture 1/2 cup mayonnaise and 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Toss lightly, so pieces are not mashed. Line a glass bowl with lettuce or center romaine leaves. Arrange the mixture on top. Garnish with ripe olives and a few reserved mandarin orange sections. Add a top-knot of crisp water-cress. Plan to serve small rolls, hot blueberry muffins or corn sticks with the salad. Makes 8 small or 6 large portions.
